VOLUNTARY PRINCIPLES IN DINANT

- 2011 ● DINANT agreed to conduct an audit process of its security operations, as part of an effort to comply with an Environmental and Social Action Plan (ESAP) required by the International Finance Corporation (IFC) during a critical situation related to many violent trespassing incidents at some of its properties.
- 2013 ● DINANT decided to disarm all of the guard force, being the first Honduran company to ever do so.
- 2017 ● DINANT determined that the social liaison staff would conduct VP'S training for all employees, as well as monitor compliance of the Company's VP'S Implementation Program.
- 2020 ● We created a one-hour course that every person that got hired had to take it as part of their induction in our platform DINANT
- 2021 ● DINANT disarmed all of the security forces.
- 2022 ● DINANT was named an Engaged Member on the Voluntary Principles Initiative.
- TODAY ● We continue to train all our employees making sure they understand and abide by the Voluntary Principles; we try to involve stakeholders as well, making sure they understand and receive training as well. This includes but not limited to communities, outsourced employees, and authorities.
